Administration

TILMAN L. JUETT, A.B., M.A.
Superintendent

Under the leadership and guidance of our very capable administration, we have grown to be the largest county school in Darke County. Our grading system has been changed to the more modern approach of nine-weeks periods. This year for the first time we have had a basketball Homecoming which is pictorially reviewed in this, the largest annual in the history of our Alma Mater.

AS I RECALL . . .

Our last year at Mississinawa Valley High School will be a long-remembered one. It has been filled with many happy events of scholastic achievements as well as social growth.

Our activities, those hectic ones - the basketball games, the class play, the wonderful dates, the rush to the cafeteria door, the race against the tardy bell, along with the rumble of chatter and laughter - will always be remembered as a part of the "good old days" of M.V.H.S.

We hear the warning bell; we rush to our classes! We are greeted by the pleasant, smiling faces of Our Faculty . . .

Activities

AS I RECALL . . .

The many organizations and activities of M.V.H.S. played an important role in our lives. Through our participation in these activities, we became better acquainted with our schoolmates, along with learning the responsibility of leadership.

Our activities taught us the value of service to our school, to our community, and to our fellow students. These lessons will help to make us better citizens of our country.

The annual staff has endeavored to portray a few of these meaningful experiences through the medium of pictures. In browsing through this yearbook, we hope you will enjoy reminiscing with us as much as we have enjoyed gathering the highlights of 1961-62 in Our School.

AS I RECALL . . .

That final basket to win the game, that burst of speed at the finish line, an injured player, an enthusiastic crowd, a heartbroken cheerleader - all are seen in a year at M.V.H.S.

Sportsmanship is a valuable asset to our school, even though victory is not always the cry heard above the crowd. It is not so much the score that counts, but rather the way the game is played . . .

As I Recall . . .

Elementary

AS I RECALL . . .

. . . That memorable morning when we left our homes alone for the first time to enroll in elementary school, I see a group of six-year olds displaying their mixed emotions - some with pride with the thoughts of growing up; others with faces still tear-streaked after being pulled from their play at home.

The thrill of the first bus ride, the joy of being able to read from our first reading books, and our unforgettable field trips - to the circus, to the fire station, and the train ride - will always stand out in our minds.

Junior High brought the thrill of discovering "the boy next door." Departmentalized instruction was a new and challenging experience. Class parties, magazine sales, and sports events all added to our development . . .

Classes

AS I RECALL . . .

. . . As a student is, so is his school. Each person must do his best whether in work or play, study or recreation, to uphold the standards set for his school.

During the time we spent as underclassmen, we were going through years of impatient waiting and development. We gained a broader outlook on life in working to meet its challenges. As we were striving to become seniors, we learned to plan carefully for our classes as well as for our important extracurricular activities.

As I Recall . . .

Seniors

AS I RECALL . . .

That last drive for our goal - the rewards of hard-won knowledge and inspiration - was full of joy, special privileges, and new responsibilities.

At M.V.S. we rose from young children to young adults. We have shared with each other our laughs, our loves, our fears, and our aspirations. We leave with deep regret, but also with the hope that the underclassmen will acquire the knowledge that we take with us.

We walk away with the refrain of our Alma Mater on our lips -

We praise our M.V. Alma Mater, in thought, in deed, in word, in song.
Forever we hold dear the memory of the school that we have loved so long.
Your black and white will bind us together
through eternity.
Our hearts forever will remain loyal and true to thee.
